How to get from airport to Amman

We will send you a car to pick you up from airport. We expect you to arrive on the same flight that we will be booking. Anyhow, below are description for how to get from airport to office.

Airport taxi: it costs 25 JD. You can find it on your exit from the airport. You will also see other drivers for yellow taxi or other cars offering you a drive. You need to bargain all the time. The airport taxi is off-white color and it is written on it "airport taxi". Ask for invoice before you get in (in case you need it) and agree on the price in advance.

Sarya Bus (Shuttle bus): it is a yellow bus, also parks in front of the airport and it departs every half an hour. The cost of the ticket will be 3:50 JD and you will pay 0.65 fils for the luggage. Tell the driver that you want to get off either at the 7th circle or at the final destination which is the north station.

Inside Amman the cost of one trip by yellow taxi is around 2-3 JD and you pay according to the reading of the meter. The bus will give you invoice/ticket, the yellow taxi will not. The name of the bus is also written on it.

Yellow taxi and you will always pay according to the meter. Therefore, make sure that the meter is turned on and is working.

The Location of the Office of I-Dare

Is close to down town as it is located in the heart of Amman in a historic building and a landmark of Amman. The name of the area is Shemsani and/or Dakhlyeh (interior) circle.

This building is next to Le Meridian Hotel. The name of the building is Iskan Commercial Bank Complex, address: 93 Queen Nour Street on the ground floor.

Other Practicalities

Visa

Visa is required to enter Jordan, Europeans can get the visa upon arrival at the airport and it costs 40 JD (please you need to carry this amount with you and keep the invoice in case you get one for reimbursement). You can exchange Euros for Dinars at Amman airport or in Amman city.

Currency

1 JD is equivalent to 0.80 Euro (as an average and the price can be less).

If you want to shop or pay anything inside Jordan you need to have Jordanian dinars with you. In down town you have a number of exchange offices also close to our office we have exchange offices. You also can exchange at the airport.

Weather

Please check your reliable weather forecast website before you come and pack accordingly. Generally it will be around 25-27 degree which means it will be warm during the day (hot) and during the night it might be a little bit cold.
